

The Mitochondrial European Educational Training Project Consortium (MEET)
Funded within the frame of PEOPLE Marie Curie Actions
Presents:

Mitochondrial dysfunction: understanding the problems to find solutions

Goodenough College, Mecklenburgh Square, London WC1N 2AB

London, December 12, 2016

Morning session

- 9:00 Welcome from the local organizers
- 9:10 The MEET project – Prof. Gasparre, Giuseppe (MEET Project Coordinator);
Universita' degli Studi di Bologna, Bologna, IT
- 9:20 “There is something wrong with my MAM; the ER-mitochondria axis and neurodegenerative diseases” - Prof. Miller, Chris;
King's College, London, UK
- 10:00 Marie Curie Meet fellows present Work Package 1 ‘Mitochondria in Cancer and Metabolism’
- 10:15 “Mitochondria in metabolism and cancer” - Dr. Anastasiou, Dimitrios;
The Francis Crick Institute, London, UK
- 10:55 Marie Curie Meet fellows present Work Package 2 ‘Mitochondrial DNA
Pathophysiology’
- 11:10 Coffee break

- 11:30 Marie Curie Meet fellows present Work Package 3 ‘OXPHOS complexes in Health and Disease’
- 11:45 Marie Curie Meet fellows present Work Package 4 ‘Therapeutic strategies to fight mitochondrial disorders’
- 12:00 Keynote Lecture “Replacement therapy for mitochondrial disorders” - Prof. Turnbull, Doug;
Newcastle University, Newcastle, UK
- 13:00 Lunch Break

Afternoon session

- 14:20 “Why mitochondria are necessary for complex life” Dr. Lane, Nick;
UCL, London, UK
- 15:00 “Beyond MEET? EU MSCA funding Opportunities for Principal Investigators & Young Researchers”- Arfi, Audrey;
Research Programme Officer - H2020 MSCA ITN Call Coordinator
- 15:30 Media Briefing
- 16:30 Video: “MEET Project storytelling: 4 wonderful years together on a train”
- 17:00 International Mito Patients (IMP) Award - MEET fellows deliver the money raised during “MEETersrunforIMP” campaign. Heattec Alfons and Emma Delrey;
International Mito Patients Association Representative
- 17:30 Drinks reception
- 18:30 Closure